

See yourself in nursing

If you've been thinking about exploring a nursing career, you'll share our excitement about the expansion of RWJBarnabas Health School of Nursing at Oceanport, NJ. Enrollment is open now to become a student in September 2025. We welcome all with varied backgrounds, differing strengths and their own world experiences. We provide our students with an educational environment that will ensure their future success as professional registered nurses. Our program is consistently highly rated and you'll learn from the best. Financial aid and scholarships are available if you qualify.

If becoming a nurse is something that speaks to you, speak with us.
